

Greetings, Friends! I hope you all had a good Mother's Day, either celebrating with your children or remembering the blessings of having a wonderful mother. I was blessed in having several good women in my life to mother and guide me. My parents were separated for several years and during that time my sister and I lived with my father's two sisters, who were unmarried and lived with their father, my grandfather. I had a wonderful life being loved and taught, by example, how to keep a clean house, how to cook, how to appreciate good friends, and how to cherish family. So, until their deaths, on Mother's Day, I always remembered my two aunts, along with my mother. Happy Mother's Day.

Video Presentation

The video presentation by Meta Hunt was well attended and enjoyed. Collectors of Folk Art who live in Austin were featured. It was interesting to hear why the collectors love Folk Art and to see examples from their collections.

Condolences

We recently were informed that we had lost two long time members of the Austin Friends of Folk Art:

Lucille Gracy Harmon
Cindy Keever

We offer our heartfelt condolences to their families and to their AFFA friends.

News from the Board President Amalia Rodriguez Mendoza

New programs are being planned for the coming months. In June, we expect delivery of the display shelves for the Corridor of Art and plans for an exhibit will be underway. In July, a large exhibit of art from our permanent collection will open at the historic Old Bakery and Emporium, across the street from the Capitol. We will keep you updated as the plans develop.

It's exciting, as more and more people learn about the Austin Friends of Folk Art and our outstanding collection of folk art.

Until Next Month
